

Joan Bond-Courtney Biography

January 2018

Current:

- Founder and CEO of Women's Prayer International
- Member of America's National Prayer Committee
- National Day of Prayer San Antonio City Coordinator
- Member of the San Antonio Christian Business Chamber of Commerce
- Graduate of Klemmer & Associates - The Quickening (Personal Mastery) and Advanced Leadership Seminars
- Married to Sgt. Major LC Courtney (Retired)
- Active Member of Parkhills Baptist Church

Former Positions:

- Member of the United States National Advisory Council for the U.S. National Prayer Council
- Planned and coordinated lunches for Women of Joy's seven conference cities
- Traveled with Women of Joy to speak and present information to attendees about the prayer room in each of their conference cities
- Women's Prayer Coordinator for the 1997 South Texas Billy Graham Crusade
- Prayer Coordinator for Promise Keepers' San Antonio conference
- Member of the Women's Leaders National Association of Evangelicals committee
- Women's Ministry Prayer Chairman and a trainer and speaker in evangelism and prayer activities at Castle Hills First Baptist Church in San Antonio TX
- San Antonio City Coordinator for Friendship Bible Coffees, and an event speaker for Stonecroft Christian women's clubs
- A residential mortgage loan officer in the San Antonio area
- Certified volunteer hospital Chaplain at the University Hospital in San Antonio on the OBGYN floor and the emergency trauma center
- Owned and operated a Real Estate company in the Rio Grande Valley
- Office Manager, full charge Bookkeeper in Houston
- Airline attendant Central Airlines (Frontier) stationed in Fort Worth TX